

Treasury Department,

Bureau of the Mint,

Washington, D. C.,

July 26, 1899

Mrs. Harriett S. Hardee,

1224 Fourth Street,

New Orleans ,La.

Dear Madam:

Your letter of July 17th relative to the order of Mr. Cahn reducing you from the position of fore-woman of the Mint is before me. It would give me pleasure to be of service to you, but in my judgment, it is not practicable or wise to undertake to direct such details of the Mint organization and management from this office.

Some measure of discretion and power must be left to the authorities in each institution if they are to be held to any degree of responsibility.

Your personal character and worth are not in question, and the policy best calculated to give efficient service in the Mint I think must be left with the officers of that institution.

Respectfully yours,

Director of the Mint.

S

Treasury Department,
Bureau of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.,

July 26, 1899.

Mrs. Harriott S. Hardee,
1224 Fourth Street,
New Orleans, La.

Dear Madam:

Your letter of July 17th relative to the order of Mr. Cahn reducing you from the position of fore-woman of the Mint is before me. It would give me pleasure to be of service to you, but in my judgment it is not practicable or wise to undertake to direct such details of the Mint organization and management from this office.

Some measure of discretion and power must be left to the authorities in each institution if they are to be held to any degree of responsibility.

Your personal character and worth are not in question, and the policy best calculated to give efficient service in the Mint I think must be left with the officers of that institution.

Respectfully yours,
[Signature] George E. Roberts
Director of the Mint.